

Please join us at the Teachers Forum, our free sessions designed to help equip Good News Club volunteers and anyone else active in children's ministry. It's a great place to meet others who have a heart for reaching children for the Lord – and to fellowship, interact, and exchange ideas in an informal setting. You'll get pointers on effective ways to communicate God's Word to kids, and you're sure to take away something new you can use right away in your ministry. There is no need to register – just be there!
